Agency team welcomes new player

Farebrother has appointed Mark Anstey as a Partner in the Leasing, Sales & Development team. Mark joins from Lambert Smith Hampton where he advised Telereal Trillium, Stockland and BUPA among others on acquisition, disposals and strategic property matters.

Mark's experience was gained across all Central London markets and includes significant lettings to legal tenants, an important Midtown occupier sector, including a 30,000 sq ft letting at 2 Harbour Exchange, E14, to the Legal Services Commission. Mark's Midtown deals have included 14,000 sq ft of lettings at 95 Aldwych, WC2, to Holmen Paper, Cognosis and Hill McGlynn.

Julian Hind, Head of Leasing, Sales & Development at Farebrother commented "We are extremely pleased that we were able to attract Mark to our busy team. His experience and contacts will complement our existing strengths and help us to continue to lead the Midtown leasing market."

Farebrother

Farebrother are property advisers and chartered surveyors offering a full range of property services in the Centre of London, specialising in Midtown and Southbank. Founded in 1799, the Practice acts for funds, estates, property companies, occupiers and private individuals, including Scottish Widows, PRUPIM, The Governing Body of Rugby School and Delancey.

Midtown

The Midtown office market broadly extends to Euston Road in the North, the Thames in the South, Farringdon Street in the East and Trafalgar Square in the West. Major occupiers include PricewaterhouseCoopers, Deloitte and Warner Bros. The proportion of occupiers from creative sectors; fashion, media, internet and IT has increased in recent years, with brands such as Grey London, McCann Erickson and Agent Provocateur relocating to Midtown.
